

Junior High Option Course Descriptions & Fees - 2020-2021

Option Course	Description	Approximate Fee
Food Studies 7	In Foods 7-9, you will get to learn basic cooking skills such as kitchen safety, reading recipes and proper techniques. You will do this through cooking a variety of snacks, meals and desserts.	$50
Food Studies 8	In Foods 7-9, you will get to learn basic cooking skills such as kitchen safety, reading recipes and proper techniques. You will do this through cooking a variety of snacks, meals and desserts.	$50
Food Studies 9	In Foods 7-9, you will get to learn basic cooking skills such as kitchen safety, reading recipes and proper techniques. You will do this through cooking a variety of snacks, meals and desserts.	$50
Leadership 8 (Learning to Lead)	In Learning to Lead 8 students will develop their leadership and communication skills through the planning and completion of a variety of community activities, projects and research. Student leaders will develop an understanding of the importance of service and contributing to their communities and be encouraged to consider their personal role in becoming capable, collaborative and contributing members of society.	$25
Leadership 9 (Learning to Lead)	In Learning to Lead 9, students will develop their leadership and communication skills through the planning and completion of a variety of service initiatives and projects. . In this course series, student leaders will develop an understanding of the importance of service and contributing to their communities. Learning to Lead 9 encourages students to consider their personal role in becoming capable, collaborative and contributing members of society.	$40
Environmental Outdoor Education 7	Go beyond the school walls to explore what you can do outdoors, to learn more about the environment and to understand your role in protecting it. Through various activities, students will develop skill, judgement and confidence in, and sensitivity to the importance of, taking care of the environment.	$90
Environmental	Go beyond the school walls to explore what you can do	$90

Outdoor Education 9	outdoors, to learn more about the environment and to understand your role in protecting it. Through various activities, students will develop skill, judgement and confidence in, and sensitivity to the importance of, taking care of the environment.	(possible additional fee for an overnight field trip $80)
Construction 7	Students will learn the basics of woodworking by designing and creating their own projects. Students will learn shop safety, hand tool basics, power tool basics, measurement, design, and finishing. A variety of projects will be made from different materials throughout the term.	$30
Construction 8	Students will learn the basics of woodworking by designing and creating their own projects. Students will learn shop safety, hand tool basics, power tool basics, measurement, design, and finishing. A variety of projects will be made from different materials throughout the term. Continuing students will learn how to use new hand and power tools as they progress to more complicated builds.	$40
Construction 9	Students will learn shop safety, hand tool basics, power tool basics, measurement, and finishing. A variety of projects will be made throughout the term. Continuing students will learn how to use new hand and power tools as they progress to more complicated builds.	$50
Art 7	In Art 7, students will use a range of different art tools, materials, and media to express how they think and feel artistically. Students will create their own art projects, and study and appreciate works made by the masters and their peers.	$20
Art 8	In Art 8, students will continue developing their knowledge of the elements of art and mastery of different artistic media. Standard art media (drawing, painting, pastels) will be studied and students will be exposed to new media not explored in previous grade levels. Students will also have the opportunity to study and appreciate works by master artists and create their own original projects.	$20 (possible additional fee for an in-school field trip $20)